

PRESS RELEASE 27 February 2014

Additional major orders for fire and gas alarms in South Korea

Consilium has received orders for a combination of fire and gas detection systems for 28 ships being built in South Korea. The total order value is more than SEK 10 million.

Consilium has received orders for a combination of fire and gas detection systems for 28 ships being built at the South Korean shipyards Hyundai Mipo, Daewoo Shipbuilding & Marine Engineering and Samsung Heavy Industries.

“The positive order intake reported for Consilium in South Korea in January 2014 has continued during February,” says Ove Hansson, CEO of Consilium.

CONSILIUM AB (publ)

For further information, please contact:

Consilium AB (publ)

Ove Hansson

President and CEO

Tel: + 46 (0) 8-563 05 300

Cell: + 46 (0) 70-576 08 33

www.consilium.se

About Consilium

Consilium is one of the world's leading suppliers of safety and navigation products and solutions. The product portfolio comprises fire alarm systems, gas detection, emission monitoring systems and navigational equipment. In addition, fire safety system and automation systems are marketed towards the oil and gas industry, the offshore industry and the energy sector. The guiding-star of Consilium's total offerings is to contribute in the protection of lives, material assets and the environment. Consilium's goal is to be the customer's first choice when safety matters and to offer superior customer value. The ambition is to become a global leader within well defined market and product areas, by utilization of the Group's combined competence, long experience and successful innovations – and thereby create long-lasting shareholder value. Consilium is publicly listed on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm, has more than 600 employees and a turnover of more than SEK 1,000 million.