

DIMESILIA HOLDINGS LTD. INITIATES COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF THE REMAINING SHARES IN RUSFOREST AB

Stockholm December 28, 08:45 (CET)

On November 23, 2016, Dimesilia Holdings Ltd. ("Dimesilia") published a press release stating that Dimesilia pursues the public offer made to the shareholders in RusForest AB ("RusForest") in which Dimesilia offered the shareholders of RusForest to purchase all outstanding shares in RusForest that Dimesilia did not already own at the announcement of the offer for SEK 2.12 in cash per share (the "Offer"). At the expiration of the acceptance period on November 21, 2016, Dimesilia owned in total 110,827,308 shares in RusForest, corresponding to approximately 84.8 percent of total shares and votes in RusForest. Since then, Dimesilia has acquired additional shares in RusForest in the market and by December 23, 2016, Dimesilia owned 119,581,213 shares in RusForest, corresponding to approximately 91.5 percent of the total shares in RusForest. The terms for these acquisitions have not been more favourable for the transferors than the terms in the Offer.

In view of the above, Dimesilia has informed the board of directors of RusForest that it has decided to initiate compulsory acquisition of all remaining shares in RusForest in accordance with the Swedish Companies Act (2005: 551).
